

UtahStyle

Fearless Design

STUNNING SPACES FABULOUS FINDS
& DARING DINNER PARTIES

3 Hot Homes
Park City, Orem
and Salt Lake

Expert Tips, Local Sources and More!

GETTING STONED

Polished fixtures and sparkling accents douse today's bathrooms with the natural beauty and timeless essence of stone.

Stone Forest amber onyx drop-in vessel sink, $1,550, Ferguson, SLC

Limestone soap dish, $26, Jayson Home, jaysonhome.com

Selenite votive holders, $20-30, Z Gallery, SLC

Baker alabaster swirl accent lamp, $527, LMK Interior Design, SLC

Waterworks Beekman marble two leg single washstand, $6,440, Mountain Land Design, SLC

Custom Smokey Quartz Cluster Knob, $390, Matthew Studios, matthewstudiosny.com

Crosshatch agate stone mosaic, $140 per sq. ft., Inside Out Architecturals, SLC

Green calcite Veronica scone, $2,100, Matthew Studios, matthewstudiosny.com

ONYX 101

The pros and cons of the bath's most stunning stone.

PROS

Onyx is a unique and rare standout choice for the bathroom. Each piece is a one of a kind.

Onyx is available in a broad selection of colors and features, distinctive patterns and veining that create bold visual statements.

Think light. Onyx's translucent quality allows you to accentuate its beauty with backlighting.

CONS

Onyx is soft and scratches and stains easily. Avoid acidic liquids and any objects that will scrape the surface.

Seal onyx after installation and clean with stone cleaner on a regular basis to help prevent scratching and staining.

Check your wallet. Onyx is one of the most expensive natural stone options and not a top choice for those on a tight budget.

